Jon	Gilbert	5	Zero games and a 1% chance of physically being able to play in the tournament. I'm very injured and need hip surgery in September. This is why i am not captaining. You are essentially picking my older brother because it is very unlikely that I step on the field at all. #torn labrum #hip impigement #osteo pubis You're making a big mistake if you draft me higher than the 7th round. If we don't hang out or play together there is really no point in drafting me at all.

Eric "Ankle Brace"	Zimmerman	4	I'm good for one really big pep talk after the first game. After that I'll throw in the towel. It's Sub Early Y'all, so sub often. Yes this is pregame rage. There will most likely be more to come.
